Auction Consignment Agreement

DAVID W. AKERS, INC. ("AKERS") a Florida Corporation, P.O. Box 530836, Miami Shores, FL 33153, acknowledges receipt from Stanley Kesselman 15 W. 81st St.

New York, NY 10024

("Consignor") of the numismatic material ("Material") described on the Auction Consignment Sheet(s) attached hereto and identified by the signatures of Consignor and a duly authorized employee of Akers. The Material will be offered for sale on Consignor's behalf by Akers, as auctioneer, at the Auction '88 Auction (the "Auction") to be held in Cincinnati, OH on or about July 16, 1988

In connection with the sale of the Material at the Auction, Akers and Consignor agree as follows:

1. The Material shall be sold at unrestricted auction sale and Consignor shall have no right to impose any restrictions or conditions (including "reserve" or minimum acceptable prices) on such sale or to withdraw the Material from sale at any time after the date of this agreement except as provided for in Paragraph 11. Akers makes no representation or guarantee whatsoever that the Material will, in fact, be sold or at what price the Material will be sold. Description, grading, classification, lotting and presentation of the Material shall be at the sole judgement of Akers.
2. Akers shall prepare and issue a printed listing, usually in the form of a catalogue, covering all the Material to be offered for sale at the Auction. Copies of the listing will be distributed to potential and prospective bidders in a manner Akers deems appropriate. Consignor unconditionally accepts and agrees to all the Terms of Sale (determined solely by Akers) appearing in the listing. A copy of the listing shall be sent to Consignor prior to the Auction with Consignor's lots clearly marked. After the Auction, a list of the prices realized at the Auction shall be sent to Consignor.
3. Akers shall be responsible for collection of the sale price of the Material from successful bidders. Akers shall be entitled to receive and retain out of the gross amount realized from the sale of the Material a commission equal to See below % of such amount. If Consignor places a bid on any of the Material and such bid is successful (the highest bid received) Akers shall be entitled to receive a commission equal to NA % of Consignor's successful bid. Akers may bid on any of the Material for its own account and, if successful, will still be entitled to the commission first referred to in this paragraph. (The balance remaining after the deduction of such commission is hereinafter referred to as the "Net Proceeds.")
4. In the event Akers agrees to advance funds against the Net Proceeds to which Consignor will be entitled from the sale of the Material (hereinafter referred to as the "Advance"), the amount, terms and conditions of such Advance shall be covered by a separate written letter of agreement between Akers and Consignor.
5. No later than 45 days after completion of the Auction, Akers will remit to Consignor in United States dollars the Net Proceeds reduced by the Advance, if any. In the event that the Net Proceeds from the sale of the Material are less than the amount of the Advance, Consignor will remit the difference to Akers within five (5) days after request by Akers. If Consignor repurchases any Material, Consignor agrees to pay Akers the commission as determined in Paragraph 3 prior to the return of the Material to Consignor and no later than five (5) days after requested by Akers.
6. In the event the successful bidder rejects or returns any material, Akers reserves the right to return to such bidder the full purchase price paid by such bidder. Any such rejected or returned Material together with any unsold Material shall be returned to Consignor or by mutual agreement between Akers and Consignor, placed in a subsequent Akers Auction. Akers shall not receive any commission in respect of any rejected, returned, or unsold Material except that Akers shall be entitled to the commission stated in Paragraph 3 if the Material is sold at a subsequent Akers Auction, or if Material is repurchased by Consignor.
7. To secure repayment to Akers of the Advance, if any, or payment of the commission due Akers on any Material repurchased by Consignor, Consignor hereby grants to Akers a security interest in any of the Material which is repurchased by Consignor or is not sold in, or which is returned or rejected after, the Auction. If Akers is not repaid in accordance with Paragraph 5, Akers has the right to sell the Material at fair market price, as determined by Akers, to secure repayment.

* subject to min bids per verbal agreement
See attached sheet for minimums

8. Consignor represents and warranties to Akers that:

- a. Consignor is the legal owner of and has full right, title and interest in and to the Material and that said Material is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever and that the purchasers of the Material at the Auction will take title to the same free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever.
- b. Consignor has the full right and authority to consign the Material to the Auction without the approval or consent of another party.
- c. The Material is genuine and authentic. If said Material is subsequently determined by a competent authority to be false or counterfeit, Consignor agrees to immediately reimburse Akers for the full amount paid to Consignor by Akers for said Material.
- d. Consignor will, at Consignor's sole cost, defend Consignor's title to the Material as represented in this paragraph, and its genuineness and authenticity against any adverse rights or claims whatsoever.

9. Akers shall provide reasonable safekeeping for the Material while in Akers' custody. In the event of a loss of all or any part of the Material due to theft, robbery, fire, flood, natural disaster, or mysterious disappearance (not any loss of value occasioned by market fluctuations), Akers' only obligation shall be to pay Consignor the fair market value of the lost Material, as determined solely by Akers.

10. Akers reserves the right to return to Consignor any Material that on further inspection Akers suspects to be counterfeit, altered or otherwise inappropriate to include in the Auction.

11. Akers reserves the right to postpone, cancel or change the dates and location of the Auction at its sole discretion. If the Auction is postponed for a period of time of more than ninety (90) days from the date listed in this Agreement, Akers will so notify Consignor in writing and give Consignor the option to withdraw the Material from the Auction. Similarly, if the Auction is cancelled, Consignor will have the option of withdrawing the Material or including it in a subsequent sale subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Consignor agrees that Material may not be withdrawn from the Auction for any reason other than those stated in this paragraph. Consignor further agrees that Akers' rights under this Agreement shall not be affected by Consignor's death, incompetency, insolvency, bankruptcy or termination of existency of Consignor if Consignor is a Corporation or other legal entity.

12. In the event of a dispute between Consignor and Akers arising from this Agreement, both parties hereby agree that the matter shall be settled exclusively by binding arbitration under the rules of the Professional Numismatists Guild, Inc. then in effect.

Consignor indicates his/her acceptance of the terms set forth in this Agreement by signing and returning to Akers the enclosed additional copy of this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the complete agreement and understanding between Consignor and Akers concerning the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Consignor and Akers and the respective administrators, executors, personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of Consignor and Akers.

Dear Stan:

I am writing to express my appreciation and gratitude for your participation in our combined sale of the Guia and Norweb Collections in New York City. The event was an outstanding success - with approximately $9 million worth of coins in all changing hands - and it will certainly remain one of the more memorable auctions of our time.

If there is anything I can do for you here, just let me know. Again, I am deeply appreciative of your patronage.

Sincerely yours,

1873 Total mintage back then a mere 825
coins struck. Price is $5400.

This year is very hard to find with about only 25 coins known. Also its condition is above average. Price is very cheap for the coins rarity.

The 1876' also rare with only 732 made back then. There are more known than the 1873, about 75 coins, price is only $2600.

Today coins are made in the millions & billions, here these two over a 100 years old with mintages under 1000.

Total due $8000. Send check or return

Enclosed please find these two very rare
$5 gold coins:

✓ 1878-CC VF $2500., cc is on the reverse
under the eagle. It stands for Carson City, Nev. All Carson City coins very popular and this year is the rarest $5 gold with 9,054 made.

✓ The 1861-D is also very rare and from the same mint as your 1853-D $2½ gold.

This year is very hard to find and it is the last year the mint in Dahlonega existed.
Just for your info, a perfect 1861-D sold for $55,000. by itself. Price $7500.

Total due $10,000.

Very best wishes,

Harvey:

This 1802/1 $5 gold just arrived in to me so I'm enclosing it in the same package.

Look at the date. You can plainly see the 2/1. The mint made no $5 gold in 1801 and now in 1802 instead of making a new obverse die just changed the die they never used. Therefore all coins are 1802/1.

The price of this coin is $14,000. It is expensive because it is so old and very few are in this state of condition.

The coin also has a beautiful design both on front & back. Both sides show the original mint luster that is still with the coin.

Best wishes,

Mr. Stanley Kesselman

Dear Stan:

Thanks very much for the very inviting list of super quality pieces that you have for sale at this time.

With all the auctions both in N. Y. and coming up here in L.A. I'm taking a back seat and am not going to get involved with any of these price wars. Superior has a sale coming up soon, supposedly that will out distance the Les Fox gold pieces. There are so many other nice things being tossed around at to-morrows prices. I just as soon tell my clients to sit still and wait out the storm. I've always told them and I'll continue to tell them that they will run out of money before they run out of coins.

Truthfully I do not have the clients that I'd want to see spend this kind of money because what I still call the downside risk. There's so many other things that they can buy and still enjoy the hobby as a hobby. Once they start putting big money such as noted in your letter into their coins they have limited the market to five auction houses and I don't believe that's enough of an outlet.

The dealers I don't know how they can afford to keep up with this outflow of coins because they certainly can't sell them as fast as they can buy them. Chances are they are getting long term interest rates, long term payment possibilities otherwise the auction houses couldn't afford to stay open. I'm not being a pessimist, I'm being a realist and I'd rather sell one of my clients an XF 1795 Dollar that he can enjoy and not lose his ass on, rather than some of these other six figure coins that he will have to sweat to sell. There are two difference catagories of buyers of course; the guy with untold money and I don't have him as a client but some of these dealers around the country do have buyers that say I want it all and good luck to them.

I'll continue to enjoy things the way they are and not get wrapped up in the hysteria that we are seeing now. I could be wrong and I hope everything succeeds for everyone and years from now I will be sorry that I made these judgements. Time will tell but from the handwriting on the wall, the elections and all these other predictions, I somehow feel that the future is not going to be that rosy. Could be right, could be wrong.

Anyway Stan, thanks for your letter, thanks for the list. I'll keep it in mind and I want to wish you and your family all well.

RESERVE BIDDING AND BUYBACK ADDENDUM

This addendum is made to that certain Auction Consignment Agreement between the parties dated November 12, 199 8 as to the Sale scheduled for January 6-8, 1999 ("Consignment Agreement").

By this addendum you will be permitted to place a reserve bid on Coin(s) consigned by you to the Sale. Strict compliance to these provisions will be enforced.

The Consignment Agreement is hereby modified and the terms thereof are superceded by the following terms and conditions:

1. You may place a written reserve on the Coin(s), either now or at any time no later than 48 hours prior to the commencement of the Sale ("Reserve Bid").
2. If you place a Reserve Bid and a lot is bought back by you, we will charge you a fee of zero (0) percent on the hammer price (the "Reserve Fee"). On lots purchased through a Reserve Bid, the Auction Commission and the buyer's fee applicable to those lots are waived.
3. If you place a Reserve Bid, you further agree to permit the Auctioneer to open bidding on the lot in an amount equal to approximately eighty percent (80%) of the Reserve Bid. You also agree that the Auctioneer may include in the Terms and Conditions of Sale the phrase: 'Auctioneer reserves the right, unless otherwise agreed, to open bidding on a lot subject to a Reserve Bid or BuyBack Bid, at an amount equal to approximately eighty percent (80%) of the Reserve Bid or BuyBack Bid.'
4. In instances where your Reserve Bid is the same as that of a third party bidder, then the third party bidder shall be awarded the lot.
5. If you are the successful bidder on any Coins consigned by you and have failed to comply with the terms and conditions of this Reserve Bidding and BuyBack Addendum (for example, by failing to place a Reserve Bid, by bidding from the auction floor, placing a bid other than in writing or placing a bid untimely or otherwise) we will charge you a ten percent (10%) seller's commission and the applicable buyer's fee on those Coin(s).
6. Applicable Auction Commissions, Reserve Fees and buyer's fees will be deducted from the amount your Coins realize from the Sale. The balance of the proceeds will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Consignment Agreement.
7. In consideration of the promotion and advertisement of the Coin(s), on any Coin(s) on which your Reserve/BuyBack bid is successful, you agree to pay Auctioneer a fee equal to the Seller's Commission and the buyer's fee on that Coin, if you subsequently sell that Coin to a participant in the Sale that bid on that Coin.

All terms and conditions of the Consignment Agreement not in conflict with the above stated terms will remain in full force and effect. Terms referenced in the Consignment Agreement will have the same meaning in this addendum as in the Consignment Agreement.

AUCTION CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc. ("Auctioneer") agrees to act as your agent for the sale of the rare coin(s) and other numismatic properties listed in the attached Schedule 1 (the "Coins"), subject to the following terms and conditions:

The Coins are consigned to our auction sale or sales (the "Sales") as listed below:

☒ Signature Sale(s) currently planned to be held on or about January 6-8, 1999
☐ Bullet Sale(s) currently planned to be held on or about _____, 19____
☐ If more than one sale indicated, split consignment: ☐ at the discretion of the Auctioneer ☐ in accordance with the attached instructions

You warrant that you are the sole owner of the Coins, that you have not encumbered the Coins in any way (by pledging the Coins as collateral for a loan or in some other way), and that all of the Coins are genuine.

Signature Commissions:

For our services, you agree to pay us an auction commission equal to negative five(-5) percent of the aggregate hammer prices realized from the sale of your Coins, EXCEPT for the following items, on which a XXXXXX percent rate will apply: _____

Hereafter, these rates are collectively referred to as the "Auction Commission". The Auction Commission is exclusive of our buyer's fee that we charge successful bidders in our Signature sales, which buyer's fee is 15% on each lot. Auctioneer retains any buyer's fees as its exclusive property. In no event shall the sum of the Auction Commission and the buyer's fee on each lot be less than $_____. This Auction Commission, and buyer's fee as applicable in certain buy-back situations, will be deducted from the hammer price your Coins realize.

Bullet Commissions:

For our services, you agree to a seller's commission of _____ percent. On any Coins that you buy back, a buy-back commission of ten percent (10%) will be charged to you. The seller's commission is exclusive of our buyer's fee of ten percent (10%) charged on all lots in Bullet Sales.

While in our possession, your Coins will be fully insured. In order that we may state the value of your Coins for the insurance policy, you estimate their value to be $ 115,000 (the "Insured Value"). You agree and understand that: 1) the Insured Value you have claimed is for insurance purposes only; 2) we do not guarantee that the amount the Coins may realize at the Sale will approach, be equal to, or greater than the Insured Value; and 3) that the applicable insurance is not "Stated Value" and that our insurance carrier is obligated to pay only "full market value" (retail price) which may be less than your valuation. In the event of loss or damage, the insurance carriers shall be directed to pay you the insurance proceeds less an amount to be paid to us equal to the sum of the Auction Commission, and buyer's fees based on the total amount of the insurance proceeds, and this payment to you by the insurance carriers shall completely satisfy our obligations regarding the Coins under this Agreement.

The Sale will be conducted in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Sale that will be printed in the Sale catalog, a copy of which you will receive approximately three weeks before a Signature Sale, or one week before a Bullet Sale. If you would like a copy of the Terms and Conditions of Sale before the catalog is printed, one will be sent to you upon receipt of your written request. You may bid at the Sale in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Sale; if you are a successful bidder, we will charge you the applicable buyer's fee on coins consigned by others, or the applicable buyer's fee and the Auction Commission on your Coins. Failure to make payment for your purchase of lots consigned by others when due shall subject such balance to interest charges of one percent (1%) per month.

The consignment of Coins made under this Agreement may not be withdrawn by you for any reason, but we reserve the right to withdraw the Coins from the Sale at any time prior to a call for bids on the Coins. We reserve the right to catalog, describe, and group the Coins in the manner we see fit. We will not be responsible for losses to you caused by errors in cataloging or describing the Coins. Our sale catalog will be sent to our mailing list of buyers who have done business with us and our affiliate Heritage Rare Coin Galleries, and to those who order catalogs as a result of our pre-Sale advertising and publicity. You agree that we may exclude from the Auction any participants that we deem are commercially inappropriate. If payment in full is not received from a successful bidder for any Coin by the settlement date (45 days after the Sale if it is a Signature Sale or 15 days if it is a Bullet Sale) or if for any reason the sale of any Coin is not completed by those dates, you authorize us to do either of the following at our option: (a) declare the sale null and void and return the Coins to you in full satisfaction of our obligation to you under this Agreement with regard to such Coins, or (b) pay you the amount of the successful bid less all amounts due us under this Agreement, in which case you agree that we shall be substituted for you with respect to your rights as the owner of the Coins under the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law. Any of the Coins not sold at the Sale may, at your option, be reconsigned to us for sale at a later date.

The amount your Coins realize from the Sale will be applied in the following order: (i) to the payment of the Auction Commission, as applicable; (ii) to an offset, which you authorize, against amounts you owe for the Coins and other coins you purchase, the buyer's fee on the purchases, and any other amounts due to us or our affiliates; (iii) if you received a cash advance, to interest accrued on the attached Standard Note and Security Agreement, which you have executed (the "Note"); (iv) if you received a cash advance or signed a Note, to payment or reduction of the principal of the cash advance or Note; and (v) to payment of any Certification Fees. The balance of the amount your Coins realize will be paid to you forty-five (45) days after the date of the Sale if it is a Signature Sale, or fifteen (15) days if it is a Bullet Sale (or the next business day if the settlement date falls on a week-end or holiday). If you receive a cash advance toward the proceeds of the sale of your Coins, the Note contains additional terms and conditions which are an integral part of this Agreement and are incorporated herein by reference. Notice: In certain instances, a portion of our Auction Commission may be paid to a third-party which may be agent of yours as compensation for services referring the consignment to Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc.

This Agreement is the entire agreement between you and us concerning the consignment of your Coins, and it supersedes any prior agreement or representation. This Agreement can only be changed in writing executed by both you and us. If there is any part of this Agreement that is held to be unenforceable, the other parts of this Agreement shall continue to be in full force and effect. Any part that is found to be unenforceable shall only be limited so that it shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. If any action is brought to enforce any of the Terms and Conditions of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party reasonable attorney's fees. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws and regulations of the State of Texas.

Arbitration Clause: Any controversy or claim out of or relating to this agreement or breach thereof shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association (A.A.A.) and judgment upon the award entered by the arbitrators may be enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Arbitration shall take place in Dallas, Texas. The Arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act.

Consignor personally guarantees and agrees to pay Auctioneer the indebtedness that may be created by the Sale of the Coins, and expressly waives protest, presentment, diligence, demand and notice of any kind.

Dear F.U.N. Signature Sale Consignor:

Thank you for including your material in the Heritage 1999 F.U.N. Signature Sale. Great effort has gone into describing the consignments to be sold. The enclosed lot listing will identify your material in the catalogue.

We are excited about the material in this sale, and we sincerely appreciate the part you have played in making it possible. We will send you a formal statement of your prices realized shortly after the sale.

Settlement for the F.U.N. Signature Sale is 45 days after the sale, which will be February 23, 1999. At that time, we will issue you a check for prices realized less any applicable deductions. Again, thank you for your consignment.

Sincerely,

Dear Consignor:

Enclosed is an itemized breakdown of the respective prices realized for each of your lots and a statement that reflects your account in settlement of the 1999 F.U.N. Signature Sale. We certainly appreciate the part you played in making it possible. Please feel free to call us if you have any questions about these enclosures.

It has been our privilege to have you as a consignor.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Heather", written in a cursive style.
